Resolved, That Mr. Speaker, from the Chair, recommend to the said William Young that he make Restitution for the last Distress made upon the said Hall; inasmuch as it evidently appears that he was indebted to said Hall, at the Time of making the said Distress, in the Sum of Nine Pence Halfpenny Sterling.

And as such Proceedings against the People of this Province, his Majesty's Subjects, appears cruel and oppressive, against common Right and the Rules of Humanity, that he recommend to him to conduct himself for the future, in his Office, with Moderation and Justice; and in Regard the House is willing to hope such Proceedings have happened rather thro' Inadvertency; or his Want of a more exact Attention to the Duty of his Station he was in, than a fraudulent Design; he was discharged, on paying the Fees and p. 882 Charges attending the Complaint, which the Clerk of the House will let him know.

Mr. Speaker accordingly acquainted Mr. Young with the Resolve of the House, and order'd him to withdraw.

The House proceeded to tax the Bill entituled, An Act for cutting off the Entail of Part of a Tract of Land called Holland's Choice, &c.
